

We can help you to select the right technical resource

<http://www.ITechScreening.com>

Who can we serve?

- Any company looking to hire an IT professional
- Any Staffing firm trying to fill in their clients IT requirements
- Any Candidate who wants to check his/her technical skills

How does it work?

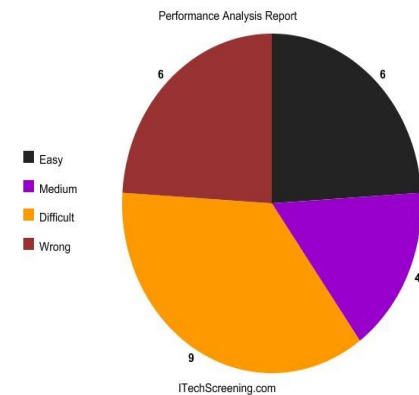

How does it work?

- The Technical screenings are conducted by real industry experts, with over 7 to 20 years of relevant experience in the particular technology that you are requesting for service
- Our screening is not like a pre planned question and answer session, we conduct real technical interviews with questions relevant and related to the technology that you are requesting based on real time scenarios.
- We will not analyse the communication skills and we will produce you with a detailed report on the interview performance and interview recordings
- Most of the technical screenings are conducted after 4 pm EST and on the weekends. You may request for screenings during the weekdays in advance
